

Dear Ms. Kresmen

I think you should stop violence on the streets. You got to stop the violence on it. If you stop the violence on it, that will get rid of violence on the streets. A nother reason to stop violence is to close down the weapon and gun sep shops down.

Dear Ms. Krasman,

I think that the silence on the
is too much once a girl was wanting to and she thought if she could come back to life so I think that it should stop.

Dear Mr. Kresman

Some times when I watch a scary program I think of it and sometimes when I go to sleep I dream of it like I am the character. Every thing that happened to the character happens to me. Once when my brother watched a program he started kicking me and punching me and he also shoots play guns at me.

Dear Mr. Kreisman,

I don't like violence. And what I want is like if some one killed some one, I think that they should get the same punishment. And on T.V. I think that the violence shows should be moved back. Except 9/11 that show shows kids to dial 9/11 if something bad happens. And I don't think that it is a violent show. It shows people saving other peoples lives. But move the other shows back.

Melissa Barnes

Dear, Mr. Kreisman,

I feel that violent movies are not for little kids. They get nightmares and bother everyone about it. And then then start acting like the killer. If they would put scary movies on, they should put the scary movies on late at night. Because when they act like the killer, they end up getting hurt. Do you like these movies? I don't. The older people kids act cool because they saw it. So the little kids see the movie and get scared. Is there anything I can do?

Sincerely,
Bryan Gernari

Dear Mr. Kressman

I was watching cartoons
and they were hitting one another with mallets and my sister went out on the porch and was shouting at them. What can you do?

Jordan

PS I was watching cartoons all day.

Dear Mr. Koeisman,

My name is Evan Stark. Sometime
I wonder if we think that violence is horrible. I think it does which make it even better to fight.
But I feel like all night
it $500. I think people need to earn what they do.

Yours,
Evan Stark

I think that people who watch THE TELEVISION PROGRAMS SHOULD TAKE OUT THE VERY VIOLENT PART OF MOST TELEVISION PROGRAMS.
BUT THEY CAN THEM ON MOVIES BECAUSE NOT EVERYONE CAN GET IN AND YOU HAVE TO PAY. BUT THE SHOWS THAT HAVE A LOT OF VIOLENCE SHOULD BE RECOOKED AT AND TRY NOT TO HAVE A LOT OF VIOLENCE.

Sincerely,

Becky Lentz

Dear Mr. Weisman,

Mr. Weisman violence on television doesn't bother me but I can see how it might scare little children. And to some kids the people on that particular television program might be their heroes and they'll want to be like them and end up hurting someone.

Sincerely,
Brandon Marze

I think violence is wrong. It showed too much on T.V. Like every kill. They show, was too much of violence where my mom won't ever let us watch it any more.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Keenan,

May 5, 93.

I think violence is too much now. Teenagers gets in fights, they do drug, drive by shootings, and many more. So people should do something instead of being afraid.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Kressman

I think violence is okay to have on TV.
If parents don't want them to watch it, they shouldn't let them. I used to have nightmares too.
Something for the little bro.

Dear Mr. Kreisman

Violence and other kinds of crimes there are too much of it on T.V. people are getting killed
every day I wish it will stop.

Mr. Kreisman,

TV violence isn't half as bad as real violence. The violence on TV is causing street violence. Older kids see things on TV that they think is cool, so they go out and do it.

Mr. Kreisman,

I don't mind as much the violence on t.v. because I like it. Some of it is uncalled for. Little kids are starting to watch these bad shows. They get nightmares and can't sleep. Teenagers that watch violence on t.v. are starting to kill people too. The true story on tv. are making them think that if they do something violent they would have a movie about them. No media is starting to be a big influence on people. The bad language is terrible too.

I wish that there will be no drug plants. So people can take them. I wish that they will quit selling the drug plants so no one can buy it. I also wish that there will be no more violence because crazy people just do what they want and that's what I wish that can be changed.

Dear Kreisman,

I don't like shooting and killing on T.V. Guns, swords and bombs are scary and hurt people. The violence and the violence in cartoons make it look like killing is a good idea. Kids might see it and go out and do it. Please stop it!
